 Parish Bulletin – March 14, 2021
 (Underlined text is linked to websites for your convenience.)

Dear Parishioners,

Happy patronal Feast of St. Patrick on March 17 and at many times throughout the liturgical year! Also, congratulations on the 148th anniversary of our wonderful parish and 68th year of the construction of our beautiful church building.

St. Patrick was born about 389 of Romano-British origin, perhaps in Wales. He founded the metropolitan Archdiocese of Armagh, Ireland and authored the Confessio and the famous Lorica, or in Latin “breastplate,” a work praising Christ. He is patron of Nigeria and the apostle and patron of Ireland.

I take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your tireless dedication to our parish, for your selfless stewardship of time, talent and treasure.

Under the patronage and example of this popular and famous Irish saint, may the Holy Spirit guide and inspire us as a community of faith. May we already prepare and project for the celebration of our 150th anniversary of our founding, our “sesquicentennial.”

Prayerfully yours,

Fr. Joe

Fr. Joseph A. D’Aurora

Pastor

Haiti Banks 2021:

This year's Lenten bank collection will fund tuition for secondary school students. This offering will help to give them an advantage in life that we often take for granted here. Though we are not permitted to handout banks this year, please consider making a donation before Holy Thursday. You can place your offering in the marked basket at the back of the church. If you drop off your donation at any other time, please write "Haiti Banks" on the front of your envelope or on the memo line of the check. Fr. Polinice Daisma, Pastor of our twin parish in Fond Pierre, Haiti, is very grateful for our generosity in sharing our Lenten donations and prayers. The St. Patrick's Haiti Committee thanks you on behalf of our twin parish.

The Weekly Lenten Ecumenical Services will be virtual this year. You can access this week's message on the parish website.

The Maintenance Reserve Collection is this weekend. This fund provides for extraordinary capital expenses, major repairs, and replacement of depreciated equipment in the parish as needed.

Parish Bulletin – March 14, 2021

From the Director of Religious Education, Kathleen Nowacki-Correia:

“I am the Light of the World.”

On the Fourth Sunday of Lent, when our parish celebrates the R.C.I.A. Second Scrutiny at 10:30 Mass, the Gospel proclaimed comes from the Evangelist John, rather than from Mark, whose writings the Church references during our current liturgical Cycle B. St. John recounts Christ’s miraculous gift to a man born blind — an outcast, who testifies to the Pharisees that his sight was given to him by Jesus. Despite being taunted as unworthy, the formerly blind man’s witness is another way of saying that he has seen Jesus for who He truly is, for he was enlightened through his encounter to have faith in Him. All three Scripture passages chosen for the Second Scrutiny speak of such enlightenment. The Old Testament reading from the Book of Samuel documents how both Samuel and Jesse could not see Jesse’s youngest son, David, a shepherd, as God saw him — as God’s chosen one, worthy to be anointed by Samuel as King. The Lord instructs Samuel that “not as man sees does God see, for man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart.” In today’s second reading, St. Paul reminds the Ephesians that, through their Baptism, they have emerged from the darkness of sin to “live as children of light,” who see the world differently in the light of Christ’s teachings. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that “Baptism is called ‘enlightenment,’ because those who receive this catechetical instruction are enlightened in their understanding. Having received in Baptism the Word, ‘the true light that enlightens every man,’ the person baptized has been ‘enlightened’ and he becomes a ‘son of light.’ Indeed, he becomes ‘light’ himself (#1216).” May we rejoice on Lent’s Fourth Sunday, known as Laetare Sunday, that through our Baptism we have been called to see the world in the “light of Christ.” May we not be diminished by what St. John Henry Newman called “the world’s encircling gloom,” but rather may we always turn to the light of Christ, as a flower turns its face to the sun. And, may we, who have been raised to new life in Christ, “live as children of light,” for, as St. Paul proclaims, “light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth.” ~K.N-C.

Liturgy Notes by Justin Soutar:

On this Fourth Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday), our Scripture readings call us to rejoice in the greatness of divine mercy. In the passage from Second Chronicles, the persistent sinfulness of the Israelites, the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, and their captivity in Babylon are followed by a Gentile king’s inspired decree to rebuild the Lord’s house. Saint Paul declares to the Ephesian Christians that their salvation is a free gift of God, “who is rich in mercy”. And John’s Gospel proclaims that God, moved by love for the world He created, sent his only Son to rescue from sin and grant eternal life to all who believe in Him.

“Sometimes men and women prefer the darkness to the light because they are attached to their sins. Nevertheless, it is only by opening oneself to the light and only by sincerely confessing one’s sins to God that one finds true peace and true joy. It is therefore important to receive the Sacrament of Penance regularly, especially during Lent, in order to receive the Lord’s forgiveness and to intensify our process of conversion” (Benedict XVI, Angelus, 3/18/12). Through our continued Lenten discipline of prayer, fasting, and works of charity, may our spiritual blindness be cured (cf. John 9), allowing us to experience the joy of God’s mercy. And may we imitate the missionary zeal of Saint Patrick and the humble fidelity of Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose feasts we celebrate this week.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament:
We need someone every Wednesday from 9:30-10:30 a.m., 10-11 a.m., and 10:30-11:30 a.m. Please consider coming to be with Jesus for one hour a week in Adoration! Thank you, Maggie Davies, 540-819-6426

Welcome Back to Mass! We are happy to see so many people feeling safe to return to Mass! We are still working diligently to keep our church clean and virus-free. Even though some people have received their vaccine, we must continue to follow Covid-19 protocols. For Mass that means making sure you are healthy when you come, wearing a mask, and maintaining social distancing. Ushers have been instructed to ensure we follow the six foot guideline, which is a little tricky. We have been trained to seat people on opposite ends of the rows with a minimum of three seats between non-related individuals. While we try to leave an empty seat at the end of each row, this is not always possible. It is more important to have three seats in between people than to have the end seat open, as when people pass by they are well under the fifteen minute exposure window.

Also, please keep six feet between you and the next person (if not in your family group) while entering/exiting the church and coming up for Communion. As always, we start at the front of the church (or behind the reredos screen if anyone is sitting there) and move back, then have people in the balcony come down followed by those sitting in the hall. Please watch the ushers and follow their directions whenever there is a procession. Remember, our ushers are volunteers giving their time to help keep you safe! Be polite and respectful in your interactions with them. By the way, we can always use new volunteers for any of our ministries! Contact Cindy at cindy@stpatrickslexington.com or 463-3533.
